CLIENT SPOTLIGHT

Samantha's Story

As shared by one of our dedicated volunteers: Samantha and her 18-month old baby girl were parked outside PACN waiting to receive assistance with material needs. She had also requested to meet with a spiritual mentor. As I walked toward Samantha's car, I asked the Lord to speak through me to meet her spiritual needs. I introduced myself and asked how I could pray for her. Samantha shared, "I lost my newborn baby at six weeks old and I'm struggling with depression. My sister-in-law and I were pregnant at the same time, so my son, Dmitri, would now be the same age as her son. Every time I see her baby, it is very hard for me because I miss Dmitri so much."

She said that she did not have money to get counseling and asked if I would please pray for her depression. I asked her to picture herself holding her son Dmitri and putting him into the hands of Jesus. "One day you will call Dmitri by name and he will know you and his beautiful big sister... you will all be together again," I said to her.

As we began to pray together, we told the Lord we could not imagine anyone better to hold Dmitri. We prayed for Samantha's heart to heal. We thanked the Lord for Dmitri and acknowledged that Samantha was still very much this little boy's mama... and that God heals all things. When we finished praying, with tears streaming down both our faces, Samantha exclaimed "I feel so much better!"

It is so precious to me that PACN can help to fulfill the material needs of a family, and that our volunteers can address their spiritual and emotional needs by simply listening to their story and praying with them... and watch God bring healing. We praise God that He continues to bring clients with great need to PACN so that their lives can be transformed by the compassionate love of Christ.

LASTING IMPACT

PACN recently received an encouraging and heartwarming letter from a former client. Here's her story:

A friend shared a recent Facebook post of PACN's and I was flooded with memories. I had found myself with an unplanned pregnancy at age sixteen and knew I wanted to do everything I could to take care of my child. There was so much I needed, and so much knowledge I didn't know I needed. Through your program I earned the things I needed for my daughter, giving me confidence that I earned something and wasn't just receiving a handout. In the process, I learned many things that came in handy both in taking care of my baby, but also in life and in my relationship with Jesus.

My baby girl was born when I was seventeen, and she was and is such a treasure. Your program continued to supply us with needed clothes and occasional diapers until I had steady employment and was fully supporting her on my own. What a feeling of accomplishment to walk through that with help offered, yet never feeling like a charity case. Everyone I met in your center was so kind, supportive, and encouraging. They put realistic goals before me and celebrated with me as each goal was met.

My baby girl is now eighteen. She graduated high school this year and is now attending an elite college. She is amazing in so many ways and such a wonderful gift! Thank you for the amazing gift and support you supply to the area. At PACN, the lives you save and the lives you help get back on track are not unnoticed. God bless you all.
